

PRESS RELEASE VERNISSAGE

Sorrento Young Art, Villa Fiorentino. Vernissage April 7.

A passionate and participated response to the second appointment of Sorrento Young Art, many took part in the annual event dedicated to contemporary art in Villa Fiorentino.

An evening full of emotions and art, events in the event. After the realization of the mural at the Villa Comunale, in which Dalla - Loren - Caruso welcomed visitors with hearts dripping with color and a lot of irony, it was possible to attend a live painting performance of the Street Artist TvBoy, to still follow a tribute to the City of Sorrento that warmly welcomed him, a canvas called Art, Love and Fantasy.

After the greetings of the institutions, the organizers Syart Leone Cappiello, Paolo Feroce, Rossella Savarese and Simona Schiazzano opened the evening with the official presentation of the work Essenza by Carmen Novaco, donated by the artist to the City of Sorrento and usable on the Corso Italia feet of the bell tower, followed by the awarding of the three Fata Verde prizes to their winners: Francesco Cuomo Art Car Range Rover Award, Emiliano Terenzi Art Arbitr Award and Monk Vince Sangiorgio Zenith Art Watch Award. Seiros the wooden mermaid fairy was masterfully realized by the artist Toni Wolfe. Finally, a public recognition of the graphic work done by the students of the Liceo Grandi of Sorrento, in particular to the students selected Agrillo and De Angelis, encouraged and supported by Prof. Tirelli.

The exhibition presents more than thirty national and international artists, divided into stylistic sections, in the large exhibition rooms of the historic Villa Fiorentino residence. During the cocktail prepared by Chef Peppe Aversa, 1 Michelin star, he lived and enjoyed the latest exhilarating work of art. The Art in Motion project by Agresta - Cuomo, a 3D mapping thanks to which the façade has been transformed into a gigantic canvas, concentrating a multitude of people who, from Corso Italia and the square in front of the fountain, has been shrouded in colors, poetic verses and the sound of the two creatives.

The exhibition itinerary continues until the end of May 13th, to accompany the students of the Grandi high school and the Salvemini high school.
